DIAZ SOUGHT BY MEXICAN PLOTTERS

Former President With Nephew May Lead Revolt Against Huerta

DE LA BARRA AND FELIX CONSULT EX-DICTATOR

Believed Only Strong-Handed Ruler Can Bring Peace to Troubled Mexico

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—That Porfirio Diaz and his nephew, Felix, will within two months be at the head of a revolt against Provisional President Huerta was asserted here today by Carlos Villareal, former attorney general of Mexico, enroute to Europe.

According to Villareal, the plotters against Huerta are conferring with Porfirio Diaz at Biarritz. Mexico's former president will probably return with his nephew and aid in the direction of the rebellion, after which, if their efforts are successful, he will install Felix Diaz as president.

FELIX DIAZ MEETS DE LA BARRA AND MONDRAGON IN PARIS
PARIS, Sept. 13.—It was learned today that Felix Diaz has been here in cognito to consult Ambassador De la Barra and General Mondragon. It is stated that all have broken with Provisional President Huerta, and that the latter two will support Diaz for the presidency.

ONLY MAN STRONG AS DIAZ CAN PACIFY MEXICO, SAYS MINER
PASADENA, Sept. 13.—Declaring that a truly republican government is impossible in Mexico for two hundred years, and that Provisional President Huerta can not restore peace, Oscar L. Kettenbach, superintendent of the Great Los Angeles mines, arrived here today. He said that until another man as strong as Porfirio Diaz appears there can be no peace in Mexico. Intervention by America would mean the extermination of all Americans in Mexico before it succeeded.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—House Leader Underwood halted currency proceedings in the house yesterday long enough to jam through a special appropriation bill carrying $100,000 for the use of the department of state in getting Americans out of Mexico.

BRYAN CROSSED CONTINENT TO SPEAK

Then Wouldn't Speak Because He Was Requested to Expurgate Address

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—Congressman Bryan arrived here today to deliver a speech at the Kings county fair which was suppressed in the House of Representatives when he tried to deliver it there. He failed, however, to speak because the committee requested that he expurgate the speech, which is supposed to contain a scathing denunciation of the editor of the Seattle Times. Bryan then refused to speak at all, although he crossed the continent for that purpose, after declaring in the House that he would deliver the suppressed speech there.

His speech had been given to the press or release today and was generally printed here, despite the fact that it was not delivered.

Wireless Sets Brake to Halt Flying Trains

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—Experiments being made on the German railroads with the wireless apparatus invented by Christopher Wirth of Nuremberg by means of which trains running at full speed may be instantly brought to a stop from the dispatcher's office, are proving highly successful.

An apparatus invented by Wirth and located in the baggage car, instantly sets the brakes by a wireless signal from the dispatcher's office. It is the opinion of experts that the invention will be a great boon to the railroad companies.

Habeas Corpus Writs, Injunctions and Requisitions All in Today's Deal

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 13.—Federal Judge Edgar Aldrich today issued a writ of habeas corpus for Harry Thaw on application of the fugitive's attorneys. The writ was made returnable at Middletown at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. It is claimed the writ will insure Thaw a long stay in New Hampshire. Simultaneously Aldrich enjoined the New York attorneys in the case from kidnapping Thaw.

Requisition on Hand
Sheriff Hornbrook of Dutchess county, New York, arrived today with a requisition for Thaw. He telegraphed Attorney William Travers Jerome at Colebrook, N. H., announcing his arrival.

Justice of the Peace Carr continued until next Thursday the hearing of the case against Harry K. Thaw as a fugitive from justice. Meantime Governor Feltner will consider the representations made that he should not honor New York's requisition for Thaw. It is not stated whether Attorney Jerome has accepted Thaw's offer to agree to an argument of the requisition before Governor Feltner.

"BIG TIM" FOUND THE ORDINANCE MANGLED, DEAD CARRIED BY 43 VOTES

Representative Sullivan's Body Discovered by Railroad Track at Palham Bay

NATIONAL CHARACTER IS MOURNED BY BOWERY

Hundreds of New York's Poor Weep for Tragic End of Demented Idol

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Representative Timothy J. Sullivan's body, badly mangled, was found today beside the railroad tracks at Palham Bay near here. Sullivan disappeared from the home of his brother on August 31 following an illness. Search was made for him and it was falsely reported that he had been found. It is believed he was struck by a train and killed on the day he disappeared.

Sullivan had stayed for several months at the home of his brother under the care of attendants, after suffering a complete mental and physical breakdown a year ago. Trips to European health resorts failed to bring him relief.

New York's Bowery, where Sullivan was best loved, will be hit hard by his death. Hundreds who profited by his generosity started to Palham Bay today to see his body. Before the morgue a big crowd of Sullivan's friends had gathered. They refused to believe the body is Sullivan's, but when Larry Mulligan, Sullivan's half brother, after viewing the body emerged from the morgue weeping, the crowd knew the identification positive and immediately set up a general weeping.

HYDE APPROVES THE CHANGES MADE

SEWAGE DISPOSAL TO BE BY IMHOFF SYSTEM

One Compartment of Septic Tank is Transformed, and Other Soon Will Be

ORANGE, Sept. 13.—Yesterday C. G. Hyde, engineer for the State Board of Health, inspected the work that Orange has done toward transforming its sewage disposal system to the Imhoff system, and gave the work his official O. K. About the time the county brought suit against Orange on complaint of West Orange citizens, the State Board of Health ordered a change made to the Imhoff system.

One compartment of the septic tank has been changed over, and is in a satisfactory condition. The other compartment will be changed over soon.

Hyde said that the Anaheim sugar factory had recently installed a $40,000 sewage disposal plant, using the Imhoff system.

It is believed Chinese servants in fashionable homes may be the guilty parties.

STATE FAIR OPENS AT SACRAMENTO TODAY

Sixteenth Annual Exposition Will Be Show Place For Week of Varied Resources of State

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 13.—Laid out like a sample room of the state's resources the big pavilions and grounds at the state fair here were thrown open today, and for the next week, the sixteenth annual exposition will be the show place of California products along with a varied program of harness racing, trap shooting and a number of spectacular amusement features, including a head-on railroad collision next Wednesday. From thirty counties of the state are agricultural and horticultural exhibits. These are shown in the main agricultural pavilion, while in two other large pavilions and numerous tents are exhibited products from the factories of California.

The opening of the fair today marked the beginning of a seven day harness race meet for purses aggregating $35,000 and an interstate blue rock trap shoot two sporting events which alone have attracted many people to Sacramento. The trap shoot will continue over Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, but the harness racing will last all through the week. A number of the world's best blue rock shots are here for the tournament, and Elmer E. Shaner, tournament manager of the Interstate Association, is on the ground from Pittsburgh, Pa.

AMENDMENT IS ROME DIPLOMAT TAKEN FROM COMING HOME ON CHARGES

Pomerene's Proposal on California Wines Was Knocked Out in Conference Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Pomerene's amendment taxing brandy used in California wine at the rate of $1.10 per gallon, and also taxing spurious wines, was stricken from the tariff bill in conference today. The action was taken after Dr. Wiley, former head of the pure food bureau, attacked the senate conferees for holding back their decision. Wiley characterized the Stone amendment to the tariff bill, exempting from taxation wines made from grapes, berries and other fruits under certain conditions as another attempt to shoot the pure food law full of holes and an outrageous effort to debase the wines of the country. He declared it is impossible to detect adulteration in such wine. The Stone and Pomerene amendments were both eliminated.

DRAWN SABER CHARGE ON STRIKERS

Michigan Troopers Trample People Under Foot in Calumet Streets

MINE OWNERS REFUSED TO ARBITRATE TROUBLE

Demonstration Followed; Traffic Halted; Police Powerless; Troops Called

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 13.—Troopers with drawn sabers today charged a crowd of striking miners and strike sympathizers. Many people, including women, were knocked down and trampled, several of the crowd being injured.

The clash followed a gathering in the street which resulted in a sympathetic demonstration for the strikers. Military authorities have prohibited such assemblages.

The mine owners' refusal to arbitrate their existing differences with the coal miners caused the officials of the Western Federation of Miners to order a peaceable demonstration. A tremendous turnout of strikers and sympathizers responded to the call. The streets were jammed and traffic was completely tied up. The police, being powerless, called on the militia for aid and the commander ordered a cavalry troop to clear the streets.

WILSON'S LOBBY CHARGE TO BE UPHELD

Both House and Senate Prob-ers Likely to Make Reports Upholding Charges

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—A canvass of the members of the House and Senate committees now investigating President Wilson's charges concerning the existence of a dangerous lobby in Washington, showed today that both reports will sustain the President's claims.

Former Representative Ralph Cole of Ohio, and Charles Littlefield of Maine, are the only witnesses remaining to be heard by the House committee, which will probably prepare its report next week. The Senate committee will continue taking testimony for another week.

AUTO HERE TO 16.4 PERSONS

ORANGE COUNTY PROSPERITY SHOWN

No Other County in States Has
More Machines in Proportion to Population

In comparison to population, there are more automobiles in Orange county than in any county in California. There is one automobile in the county for every 16.4 persons.

That speaks a good deal concerning the prosperity of the county. It speaks a good deal for the average man's prosperity. Orange county farmers make good incomes, and they can afford automobiles.

The ranchers on the San Joaquin, the sugar beet growers, the celery growers—why, an automobile among those farmers is about as important an implement for farming as is a plow.

The last number of Touring Topics has an article on "More Than Fifty Thousand Automobiles in Southern California."

In that article appears the following:

There is one car to every 19.5 persons in Southern California, whereas, there is only one car to every 44.9 persons in Northern California, and the average for the entire state is one car to every 29.8 persons. Orange county, with its car to every 16.4 persons, takes the lead among the ten counties south of Tehachapi with San Diego a close second with a car to each 16.5 persons. Los Angeles county is third on the list with a car for each 18.5 persons, with San Bernardino county, Riverside county, Ventura county, Santa Barbara county, San Luis Obispo county, Imperial county, and Kern county following in the order named according to their per capita ownership of automobiles. The astounding information contained in these figures lies in the fact that the county with the least number of machines in proportion to population is far ahead of the average for automobiles owned per thousand of population in the United States as a whole. The average for the entire nation as given by the Eastern automobile journals and figured on the 1910 census with a maximum of machines shown under the various systems of registration, is about ten cars per thousand of population or one car to each one hundred persons, whereas Kern county, which ranks last in the list of Southern California counties in the ownership of automobiles in proportion to population, has one car to each 31.6 persons.

RECOVERY IN REAL ESTATE

Activity Shown by Several Sales Reported in Past Few Days

Orange News: Evidence of revival in real estate activity is presented by several recent transfers of local property.

An interesting sidelight on building lot values is contained in a sale of a lot on South Grand street by D. Boland to D. B. Barrett of Los Angeles. The lot, 50x132, is just north of Almond avenue on the east side of Grand street and is set to fruit trees. It brought the remarkable price of $1,000. The sale emphasizes the increased salability of property when well kept or set to trees giving an attractive appearance and should point an obvious moral to owners of vacant property. Mr. Barrett, who formerly lived here, expects to build a home on the lot.

Another sale of interest was the J. H. Reeves place on East Almond avenue which was sold yesterday to Dwight Chaffee, recently of San Diego, but formerly of Montana. Mr. Reeves and family expected to leave yesterday for Arizona where they have taken claims, but remained over a day to complete the sale. The price has not been announced. Coate & Moore handled the sale.

Another sale of interest was the purchase of 17.34 acres on the Anaheim road adjoining the Katella electric sub-station by F. H. Mellor and J. F. Kellar of Orange from E. H. Hinshaw. Mr. Mellor and Mr. Kellar expect to develop orchards on the place. The sale was made by the Hemphill agency.

C. C. Wheeler, who with his wife arrived Sunday from Rush county, Kansas, lost no time in investing here. On Monday he purchased the X. D. Ayres home at 409 North Shaffer street, the fine house built several years ago by Charles Columbia. Mr. Shriver, Mr. Ayres' brother-in-law, has been living at the house but a few days, removing there from the ranch which he recently sold. It is now up to him to move again.

BIG ACHIEVEMENT ON SMALL ACREAGE

Fred Peitzke has demonstrated what can be done on a small acreage tract at his place in the northern edge of Stanton. When he took the place a year since it was run down and not very productive. But under the skillful management of the new owner a great change has come. There is a small berry patch in the garden from which over a hundred dollars was taken in small fruit. A crop of oats was sown last December which yields three hundred dollars from six acres. Now following the oat crop, a corn field is ripening to the harvest. All this in nine months. The soil here is fine and the land is yielding great returns. Mr. Peitzke insists that it is easy to get a living and make a good profit on a five-acre tract.

He has recently purchased a five-acre orange grove, which is a part of the Morgan place. The trees are young and growing rapidly.—Stanton Optimist.

SUBSTANTIAL IMPROVEMENTS NEAR STANTON

D. L. Brain is making some marked improvements on the place he bought of G. Hodgkinson last year. There are ten acres in the tract which are being converted into a neat and comfortable home tract. A new five-room bungalow is going up. It is modern and fitted with all conveniences. The carpenters are now at work and the residence will be ready in the near future. A new barn with all modern fittings is going up also. A 15-horse-power pumping plant is being installed to furnish water for the place, and pipe lines are being laid. The tract is located three miles from Garden Grove.

F. D. Boland is also making improvements on his place which adjoins the tract mentioned above. He is installing a pumping plant to water the fifteen acres and will erect a small residence right away.—Stanton Optimist.

BIG SHIPMENTS OF PRODUCTS OF SOIL FROM GARDEN GROVE

On Monday the Pacific Electric railway shipped out from this station seven cars of chilis and tomatoes. This is the largest shipment ever sent out in a single day over this line or in any other way. All day there was a congestion on the platform and all hands were busy, almost too busy to eat. Agent Foster went over the records and a comparison shows that all records were broken.

The chili crop is only beginning to move and without doubt this record will again be broken before the end of the season.—Garden Grove News.

PROSPERITY NOTES

Mr. Fred and Immanuel Bastady, two prosperous apple growers of Buena Park, are now gathering their crop of different varieties of this fruit. Part of their sales are made to Stern & Goodman of Fullerton in which they consume three large wagon loads per week. These people are wise in purchasing this fruit for their trade, for the Bastadys grow the best varieties of this product.

The California Vegetable Union intends to begin shipping tomatoes from Fullerton the first of next week. It is estimated there will be over 150 carloads shipped from here this season. The price has not yet been decided upon.

ASSOCIATION SHIPS LAST CAR OF FRUIT

Anaheim Plain Dealer: The Anaheim Fruit Association, the largest concern shipping fruits from this point, sent out its last car of oranges for the season on Thursday. The Association's total output was 215 carloads, an increase of approximately twenty per cent over the preceding year. From the first of the season local oranges sent out by the Association have brought top-notch prices in the distributing centers throughout the east, a fact that is particularly pleasing to Manager Sandilands as well as to the members of the association.

ADVERTISING FOR ITS BIDS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 11.—The Carnegie Corporation having now approved the amended plans for a public library building here, the library trustees are advertising for bids for the construction of the building and it is expected that work on it will be begun in November. It is to cost $10,000.

The jettisoning and driving of the big reinforced concrete piles for the $9,000 pier here was begun today. The piles which weigh on an average nine tons, are handled with winches having steam engine power and are placed in position and afterwards the ocean bottom is driven from under them with powerful streams of water. When sunk to the proper distance they are tapped a few times with a 3000-pound steam hammer. The work of driving the piles will consume two months and the building of the reinforced concrete superstructure will require about that much more time.

The local grammar school opened Monday with an enrollment of 324, which will soon be increased. The faculty now numbers nine teachers and the curriculum includes domestic science and mechanical instruction in the higher grades.

NOTHING LIKE FRESH PAINT TO BRIGHTEN THINGS UP A BIT

Harry Narritson has finished painting contract for the Magnolia schoolhouse. The building is spick and span in a fresh coat of yellow with white trimmings. Inside the seats are a fresh cherry stain on the top and an mahogany finish on the sides. The walls of the rooms and halls are newly tinted and the floors oiled. The board was well pleased with the work. Mr. Harrison has the contract for painting the pump house on the Bloom ranch between this city and Garden Grove. He also is painting the pumping plant on the Warden place at the corner of Magnolia avenue.

LAST GAP IN BLOCK FILLS

Carroll's Lot on North Main Near Sixth to be Built on for a Garage

A Number of New Houses Have Been Commenced During the Last Week

As predicted by the Register a week ago, building activities are picking up. The contractors did not expect the activities to open up until next month, but if the pace set the last week is maintained, September will make an excellent showing.

During the week Contractor Galbraith took out the permit for the $20,000 brick building that he is to build for Henry Meyer at the northwest corner of Third and Spurgeon streets. The excavation is completed. This morning City Engineer Finley set the stakes for the beginning of construction.

On North Main street workmen have commenced filling in the last gap between Third and Sixth streets. In those three blocks there was but one vacant lot, and that will soon be vacant no longer. It is owned by C. Carroll of Anaheim, son of Timothy Carroll, who invented the sugar beet dunnop. James O'Brien, contractor, has commenced the construction of a $2250 brick on the lot, fitted for a garage. The lot adjoins the Cadillac Garage.

One feature of the last week's activities is the number of new homes that have been commenced. Aside from those shown in the permits is that commenced by Contractor W. N. Carter, Jr., for George Wells on Ross street near Hickey. Carter is just finishing two other houses.

THINGS DOING OUT McPHERSON AND EL MODENA WAY

C. W. Post, manager of the McPherson Heights Packing House, has purchased the M. Luther house and moved his family there.

Marion Flippin is making preparations for the erection of a new home at McPherson.

The electricity has been connected with the pumping plants on the Crawford ranch and they are now pumping with electric power.

The machinery for the R. W. Jones pumping plant has arrived. It includes a 32-horsepower engine.

The trustees of El Modena school and some of the men of the church have made arrangements with the electric light company for lights both at the school and the church. They will soon be installed.

Extensive Improvements at Modjeska Ranch

SCENES AT THE HOME OF THE LATE MADAM HELENA MODJESKA

Extensive improvements are being made at the old home of the late Madame Modjeska. The ranch is now owned by a number of Long Beach gentlemen who have decided to make it a country home for the members of the company, where at any time of the year the house will be open for their reception. At present thirty-four people can be accommodated over night without crowding. The old building has been repaired, newly painted and shingled, and later, perhaps next spring, several cottages will be built as private quarters for members and their families.

O. H. Smith and family occupy the keeper's quarters at the entrance to the grounds, and show every courtesy to visitors who comply with the rules, which are very liberal. Mr. Smith says as high as 300 people visit the grounds on Sundays and many come during the week. He says the only trouble he has from visitors is the chronic souvenir hunter and the smart aleck.

To make the home more accessible for automobiles, arched concrete bridges have been built over the brook and the canyon road has been repaired, thus shortening the distance to Arden from the outside world. The Modjeska ranch is composed of "Arden" and 1400 acres of mountain scenery.

The owners believe that they were justified in taking the whole estate to get the picturesque mountain home of the famous Polish actress, Madame Modjeska.—Orange Post.

FANCY DRESS BALL SUCCESS

Affair Given Last Saturday Evening at East Newport Pleasing

EAST NEWPORT, Sept. 13.—The fancy dress ball given Saturday evening at the East Newport Pavilion, was a grand success, over 150 residents and visitors of the beach being present. Only those masked were allowed to dance for the early part of the evening, and when the dancers unmasked there was much surprise and merriment as the masqueraders were recognized. Society ladies danced with clowns, school girls with policemen. "Sis Hopkins" was also present, and two sweet little twins, attired in pink and blue checked gingham were afterwards recognized as cashiers of one of Riverside's banks, and president of Riverside's water company. The prize for best costume was awarded to Miss Frances Hunt, who wore a gown composed of the Sunday funny paper, while Miss Grachen Denman received second.

Tuesday the beach presented a somewhat deserted appearance, as nearly everyone attended the road races at Corona. Among those who witnessed the races were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carnahan and Mrs. C. Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Denman, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis; Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. West; Mr. and Mrs. Angus Cameron; and Francis Cutler and R. F. B. Strange, Roger Mills, Jas. Lindenberg and E. H. Bramwell.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Literature Section
The Tustin Literature Section of the Eboli will hold its first meeting for the fall with Mrs. D. L. McCharles Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 16. They will use the September number of "World's Work."

The W. C. T. U.

The Tustin W.C.T.U. held its regular meeting with Mrs. E. J. Cranston, who was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. Fred Currier, Thursday afternoon. Since purchasing the property of Mrs. M. L. Case, Mr. Cranston has completely renewed and redecorated the interior, and the spacious rooms with their high ceilings make an ideal meeting place for any kind of gathering, especially on a warm afternoon. The W.C.T.U. members gathered in, to the number of about twenty. They were Mesdames Shatto, Ebel, Tingley, Utr, Sarah Brown, Rawlins, Crawford, Hubbard, Pollard, Cock, Whitehead, J. O. Preble, Miller, Lindsey, Chas. Smith, Stearns, Ellis Smith, Hollis, Lindsey, and Miss Stone. Misses Margaret Tingley and Valeda Willard were guests.

Mrs. Sarah Brown asked that any business be attended to before the devotional exercises.

The roll was called and responded to with scripture quotations and this was followed by the reading of minutes. A motion was made to renew the subscriptions to the Crusade Monthly and Temperance Quarterly.

An invitation was read from the Santa Ana union to the Tustin union to attend an all-day meeting at Birch Park next Tuesday, Sept. 16.

Business disposed of, Mrs. Brown read for the scripture lesson the 46th Psalm. After prayer by Mrs. Shatto, the Lord's Prayer was chanted by all the ladies.

The song, "Tell Me the Secret," was sung, and a piano solo played by Miss Valeda Willard. Next on the program was a recitation by little Marjorie Cranston, which was enjoyed by everyone.

This was to be an institute meeting conducted by Mrs. Crawford, and she then came forward and distributed some papers to be read by different ones, bringing out some interesting facts about the progress of the temperance cause, in the District of Columbia, the Canal Zone and other places. Three hundred towns have some dry since women have voted in California.

A piano duet by Mrs. Preble and Mrs. Ebel followed.

A parliamentary drill was conducted by Mrs. Sarah Brown, in which most of the ladies took part in such a way as to give them something of a lesson in parliamentary law and at the same time bring out some interesting matter on the subject of purity.

A piano solo by Miss Margaret Tingley again varied the program, and then followed a motion to adjourn, after several new songs were practiced.

The ladies were then detained by the hostesses serving delicious peach ice cream with angel cake and chocolate cake.

Ladies Aid Society

The Ladies Aid Society of the Tustin Presbyterian church held its first fall meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Blew at the home.

The most pressing business before the society was the matter of furnishing a room at the new Spanish school in Los Angeles. The ladies see their way pretty clear now to raise the necessary funds by the time the building is finished if every one will do her part, and that is assured in the Ladies Aid Society.

In planning the fall work, the Christmas bazaar is a possibility and the ladies haven't much time to be idle.

There was time Friday afternoon for a very pleasant social hour and the hostess served delicious ice tea and cake. Those in attendance were Mesdames McAllough, Ebel, Tingley, Wollenberg, Lindsey, Kiser, Johnson, Lambert, Marshall, Leith, Preble, Dryer, Cranston and the hostess, Mrs. Blew.

House Party at Newport

Mrs. Ed. Smith and family have taken a cottage at Newport Beach for a week or ten days. Her daughter, Miss Avis Smith, has invited Mrs. Tingley's Sunday school class, to which she belongs, down to the beach on Saturday to a house party. Those who expect to attend are Misses Ruby Schwartz, Emma Thorman, Dorothy Utt, Ruth Rawlings, Verda White, Grace Hatfield, Ella Awe and Margaret Tingley.

Shower for Miss Crawford

A pre-nuptial affair given last Saturday afternoon by Miss Alma Cock and Mrs. Gus Eggert at the home of Mrs. L. A. Cock, was a shower for the bride-to-be, Miss Etta Crawford.

In addition to those mentioned above, it was attended by Mesdames J. L. McBride, Fred Wilkes, Will Bowman, John Kiser, Geo. Loe, and Miss Ethel Alderman, all members of the Tustin Thimble Club.

The most interesting feature of the charming little party was the centerpiece on the table upon which a dainty pink and white luncheon was served.

A huge crepe paper rose was the centerpiece with a group of candles in the middle. These the ladies in turn tried to blow out. Streamers of pink ribbon were attached to the petals of the rose. As these were pulled the petals opened, disclosing dainty gifts for the bride-to-be.

The Tustin "Y"

About fifty young people gathered at the home of Miss Gertrude Utt last Friday night at the meeting of the Tustin "Y."

The opening devotions were led by Mrs. C. E. Utt. Mr. Geo. Prather conducted the business part of the meeting. Among other items of business, a was decided to have a banquet in K. P. Hall on the third Friday night in September, each member to invite a friend.

After the business was disposed of a very interesting program was carried out. There were piano solos by Miss Mildred Marchant, Miss Gertrude Utt and Alton Alderman. Several short talks on the subject of temperance were given. Temperance in dress, in eating, in work, in play, and in drinking.

A number of amusing games were participated in. This part of the program was in charge of Miss Williams. The usual refreshments were enjoyed by the young people.

Pleasure Trip

A hayride and "weenie" bake on the beach was much enjoyed by a good many young people of the Tustin Christian Endeavor Society last Saturday afternoon and night.

If society is going wild over the possibilities of the motor car—and there is no denying the fact that it is—there is still something to be said about a hay wagon as a vehicle on which to go a-pleasuring, as about thirty young people in Tustin are ready to testify. What if it was a little late in arriving, waiting around isn't so bad when the boys and girls are all together and looking forward to the good time coming; and what if they did have to shoulder the "weenies" and marshmallows and watermelons and go to meet the wagon and then miss it and send word back to meet them down the road? They finally found each other and all were aboard. Everybody knows there was plenty of time on the way to send the boys after wild flowers and reeds and also to admire the sunset and moonrise. There were foot races along the railroad track, and some even jumped into automobiles, went to Newport and walked back to meet the wagon, all of which was great sport.

Arriving at the beach after a four hour ride, the toasted "weenies" did taste good, and so did the buns, doughnuts, marshmallows and watermelons. On the way back everybody stayed close to the wagon and whiled the time away with the usual songs and jokes. As a sleep producer the next morning, a hayride is a good thing, and on the whole it must have had a good effect, as there was a splendid attendance at the C. E. meeting Sunday night at 6:30.

A Trip to San Diego

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shatto returned Wednesday night from San Diego, where they were delegates to the Southern California Advent Christian church conference. They report many enjoyable occurrences in connection with their trip.

The delegates were allowed to take several sight-seeing trips. Among the most interesting were viewing the ten warships in the harbor, visiting Port Roscamans, where the government guns are located. They also saw six hundred Mexican prisoners guarded by soldiers, as well as all the country around San Diego.

Corcoran Club

The Corcoran Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Stearns, the fancy work was taken out on the lawn under the pepper trees, which proved to be a delightful place to spend the warm afternoon.

Those present were Mesdames Ann Schwartz, Will Collar, Chas. Artz, Mount, Lambert, Hart, King, F. C. Stearns, and Misses Edith, Eva and Gladys Stearns. The guests were Mrs. Wm. Stearns and Mrs. Mayer.

A cool drink of fruit punch served with sandwiches and cake was a pleasant addition to the social hour.

Attended the Road Races

Among those who attended the automobile races at Corona Tuesday were: Messrs. H. J. Norton, Claud Norton, John Kiser, Chas. Bowman, Chas. Artz, D. L. McCharles, S. E. Tingley, Tom Shedd, A. Nordstrom, Chas. Milne, Fay Marple, Walter Stutzman, Lou Allen, Vern Hill, Alton Alderman, Ray Lambert, Miss Gertrude Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gulick and son, Mr. and Mrs. Will Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wollenberg.

Ball Game and Basket Supper

Wm. Jones and E. J. Cranston have planned a baseball game for their two Sunday school classes, to be held on the school grounds this afternoon and evening. If the attendance is large enough they will have a match game and a basket supper will come in handy after the game.

House Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stearns have returned from a week's stay at Newport Beach. They occupied a pleasant cottage there and entertained a number of friends during the week. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. W. Stearns of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stearns of Fairhaven avenue, Ray Lambert, Miss Clara Wells and Miss Genoa Edgerly of Garden Grove, and Mr. Bud Paine of Santa Ana.

The New Bakery

Tustin can now boast of a full-fledged bakery. It is installed in a new concrete building with all modern appliances and the work of baking bread, pies, cake and other bakery goods was started this week.

Citrus and Bean Crop

The Tustin Hills Fruit Association began packing oranges on Tuesday. The new concrete addition of the Tustin Lemon Association is finished and the fall work has begun.

The Tustin Packing Co. has been busy packing fruit since Wednesday.

The beans are coming in and it is expected to begin shipping in earnest Monday.

Tustin School

The work of renovating, rearranging and cleaning the schoolhouse has been in progress this week. The inactivity of several heads put together has been taxed in an effort to make more room. Owing to the fact that the seventh grade will be smaller this year they have been able to take out a partition between the front of the room on the second floor and a cloak room to make an extra small recitation room. Thirty-six new seats have been added to the general assembly room, and woodwork and floors all over the building have been touched up. The library is rearranged, part of which has been moved into the assembly room. Everything is about in readiness and once more the old building will present a lively scene next Monday morning.

Good Copy Attractive Advertising

A few years ago the big cry in advertising was the "copy." Today everybody is talking of "merchandising."

Advertising knowledge comes slowly and by bits. No advertising man ever sprang up fully equipped for the work, no matter what may have been his previous condition or instruction.

Every campaign planned by us is a selling campaign—a merchandising campaign built on dug-out facts.

But there is an important item that we do not overlook—copy and attractiveness.

First the advertisement must be easy to read—and doubly so in summer time. Your entire "story" told in the headline is always a good plan to adhere to.

Your copy may be the best argument on earth—and still fail to bring results.

Here's what we do: We can arrange your ad in such a way that the reader will have to pause and look—and if your copy is properly prepared, the ad will have done its work in an instant.

You must get your advertising before the greatest number of people, at the smallest cost per capita.

The Register's circulation is guaranteed—absolutely—3391.

This circulation—the service and attention we give your advertising problems has resulted in much "exclusive" advertising in the Register.

Advertising is the editor-in-chief of the commercial world—the interpreter which sets to print the needs of mankind—the sap of the business tree.

THE COST OF A MEDICAL EDUCATION

The cost of a modern medical education, per student, to the institution giving the instruction, is greater than the total amount of fees the student pays. In other words, a modern, up-to-date medical school actually loses money on each student. This apparently impossible situation is shown in the annual educational number of The Journal of the American Medical Association. Another apparently contradictory statement is that a good medical education does not cost any more than a poor one. In the Journal the 106 existing medical colleges have been grouped according to the amount of fees charged and according to their classification by the Council on Medical Education in Classes A, B and C. Twenty-three colleges charge fees of $100 or less per year, sixty-five between $100 and $175, and eighteen charge above $175. Of the twenty-three colleges charging $100 or less, twelve, or over half, were listed among Class A (acceptable) colleges by the Council on Medical Education, five were among Class B colleges, and only six of them are found among the Class C colleges. Among the ten Class A colleges having these low fees are the schools of medicine of the state universities of Colorado, Iowa, Mississippi, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas and Utah. On the other hand sixteen colleges listed in Class C charge fees of from $100 to $175 per year for each student. Diplomas from Class C colleges are not reported as recognized by twenty-four state licensing boards. It is a question, therefore, why a student should spend his time and money in a low-grade college the diplomas of which are not recognized in many states, when in the same time and with even less money he can attend one of the best equipped colleges the diplomas of which are recognized in all states. Although fifty colleges listed in Class A charge fees ranging from $150 to $275 per year for each student, the actual expense for teaching that student in these colleges amounts to from two or three to several times those sums.

Pacific Coast News Letter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Senator Chamberlain has forwarded to the Postmaster General the recommendations received by him for four candidates for the $2500 postmastership at Klamath Falls. The applicants are W. A. Delzell, J. H. Everett, Joseph McAllister and William Wagner.

Senator Works took occasion the other day to explain that his name has unfairly been coupled with that of Rudolph Spreckels in the Tom Fox postmastership case. "I am not acting for Mr. Spreckels in this matter," he said. "I am acting upon information received from Sacramento, where Mr. Fox lives. I am no more representing Rudolph Spreckels in this or any other case than he is representing me."

Among the pleas which will be made for the passage of the Seamen's bill at this session of Congress is the need for protecting the lives of passengers and crews on the big wooden excursion steamers now plying the Great Lakes. A strike on the lakes, which lasted three years before it was compromised, has left very few skilled seamen to man the ships. A new vessel left for Lake Erie last week with more than 3000 persons aboard. Company officials declined to say what would happen if she caught fire when a mile off shore. Yet every state and federal law had been complied with.

Determined to learn at first hand the possibilities as to his securing the progressive senatorial nomination at next year's primary in Washington, Representative J. W. Bryan has gone home for a speaking tour.

He has studied the situation at long range, and made up his mind that if he is to make a fight within his party it may as well be for the senatorship as for a seat in the House. His friends have notified him that Ole Hanson is being groomed for the senatorial sweepstakes, while Representative Falconer is inclined to try his running qualities in the same event. The party records of all candidates, as to progressivism, are to be made an issue.

Examples set by San Francisco and Seattle in the voting of bonds to construct municipally owned street railways are being quoted by local newspapers in connection with the bill introduced in Congress for municipalizing the street-railroads of the District of Columbia.

Representative Crosser of Cleveland, who was a friend of the late Mayor Tom Johnson, and is on the House committee on the proposal, wants the lines purchased by condemnation if the companies do not agree with the public service commission of the District, within six months, upon a price.

The success of San Francisco's Geary street municipal railroad, and its overwhelming vote to extend the system, have done more to advertise public ownership in the eastern press than any recent event except the establishment of the parcels post.

Quick action on San Francisco's Hetch Hetchy water supply bill by the Senate public lands committee and the Senate itself is indicated by the manner in which scores of members of the upper house have offered to lend a hand. The hearings and parliamentary delay which marked the course of the bill at the other end of the capital were brought to an end last Wednesday. The final vote was 183 to 43. The Senate committee will not insist on hearings. It proposes to give San Francisco a water supply without much discussion.

A. six of the Pacific coast senators are for this measure. So are almost all of the New England senators, in spite of the fact that the "nature lovers" who have for ten years fought against this municipal ownership project have their stronghold in that section. The one prominent opponent of the plan is Senator Smoot of Utah.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Team lost a manager at half past four; Boss took him out through an open door. Wires had a story, at half past five, of a new manager, much alive. At half past six a denial came; Boss had a manager, but not that name. What was the name? Somebody cranes. The answer is easy—it was Fielder Jones.

There you have it. In landing on the Pacific coast during our minor league rambles, one of the big noises found out there is "Casey." Fielder Jones, one time White Sox manager and now president of the Northwestern League. Any time a manager gets fired in one of the big leagues a story is sure to come from Portland stating that the job has been offered to Fielder Jones. And then Jones comes forth with an explanation of his business interests in Portland. One of the big sources of revenue for the newspaper correspondents is sending out reports assigning Jones to new berths in the majors. And in these reports they say that Fielder Jones is scheduled to drop out of circulation.

One slant along the general lines of the Pacific Coast and Northwestern Leagues reveals a peculiar situation, which may be untangled before next year rolls around. There are two teams in Portland, Ore., both owned by former Congressman W. W. McCredie. One is in the Pacific Coast League and the other in the Northwestern League. The Pacific Coast League has a class AA ranking, and Owner McCredie recently put one over on the big leagues by selling himself several players from the Portland Northwestern team and putting them in the Pacific Coast Portland team line-up, thus dodging the drafting process.

The Pacific Coast League directors, however, have voted in favor of breaking up this combination by which McCredie is in a position to help out his Pacific Coast League team by grabbing off players from his Northwestern League team and drawing both ways on the attendance. Should the Northwestern people be forced to switch the Portland franchise to some other town, as now appears likely, Fielder Jones will have to persuade them to name a non-resident president, because, he said, those business interests would prevent him from leaving Portland.

Mixed up in the Northwestern League is "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity, former New York Giant pitcher. McGinnity is handling the Tacoma team and in addition is taking his regular turn in the box. The team is in the second division but Joe is right up among the leaders when it comes to the pitching business.

The pennant race in the Northwestern League has narrowed down to three clubs—Vancouver, Seattle and Portland. Vancouver is the favorite, Tacoma, Victoria and Spokane are the trailers. Three big sales already have been made by Northwest League clubs. Scout Maguire bought Pitcher "Toots" Schultz from Vancouver, for Detroit, putting up $1000 for him. Vancouver also sold Pitcher Schmutz to Brooklyn, but the purchase price was not announced. Victoria sold Pitcher Kantielner to the Pittsburgh Pirates for $3000. Outfielder Pappa, of Spokane, also was taken up by the Pirates. Seattle has a southpaw from the same town in Idaho that produced Walter Johnson. He is "Weiser" Dell and is expected to be drafted. Pitcher Alvin Gipe of Seattle; Charley Fullerton, a spit-baller; and "Stonewall" Jackson, Seattle's first baseman, and Pitcher Lou Standing, of Portland, also are expected to go to the big leagues by the draft.

The Pacific Coast League is all tangled up in one of the tightest fights in its history. As the season is not scheduled to close until October 26, they have plenty of time to fight it out. Any of the six teams has a chance at the pennant and all of them are going after it.

Harry Wolverton, one time manager of the New York Yankees, is directing the Sacramento team and has it well up among the leaders. Oakland, last year's pennant winner, was a disappointment this season. Portland was deep in the cellar for almost three months, but has made a remarkable climb, mainly because of the strength of the pitching staff. Hi West and Bill James, who had brief trials with the Boston Nationals, are the mainstays. James has developed wonderful speed, and Portland fans think he will get another crack at fast company. West may also go up.

The Pacific Coast League has not sold as many players during the season as some of the others, but heavy drafting is looked for. San Francisco may lose Jimmy Johnston and either Walter Schmidt or "Skeeter" Panning. Johnston was loaned to San Francisco by the White Sox. He leads the league in base stealing and will likely be recalled. Schmidt is a handy catcher and Panning leads the league in the box. Ness is a good first baseman and hitter for Oakland and may go up. Venice may not be disturbed by major league raids. Sacramento has "Honolulu" Williams, one of the "twelve ton" variety, and Roy Moran, crack outfielder, who may be taken up. Carl Maggart, now with Los Angeles, was given a trial with Philadelphia last year and might get another chance if he decides not to keep to his announcement to retire from the game at the end of the season.

WOMEN'S FADS AND FANCIES

By Margaret Mason

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Every woman knows that restocking her linen shelves and duds up her house in a lot of monogrammed sheets and towels, pillow cases, tablecloths and napkins is the next best thing to decking herself in a complete new outfit of sheer and lacy lingerie. Fortunately for the thrifty housewife fashions in household linens are not so fickle and seting as in personal. Even so, the floral designs of our grandmothers' tablecloths are in the worst possible taste today and the degree to which a bath towel has evolved into a thing of beauty as well as a utilitarian proposition would have widened her old eyes with amazement not unmixed with disapproval.

Quite the most charming designs in table damask for the up-to-date hostess are noticeable for their simplicity.

A perfectly plain cloth with napkins to match has for design merely a broad satin band for a border. Of course such smart severity calls for elaborately embroidered monograms. For the very large napkins these are prettiest done in the center of the napkin but in the ordinary dinner size the monogrammed corner is equally attractive. An inch and a half monogram on the napkins and a three inch on the cloth is the best. Three letters in script make a very good monogram but the newest is a conventional arrangement of three block letters into a square or a triangle.

A striped cloth with a floral border is effective, or one with a plain center with a floral border is pretty in either a round, square or long banquet cloth. The centers of the new cloths are all either striped or plain however, and an all-over design stamps them immediately as being of an earlier vintage than 1913.

For breakfast and luncheon cloths the colored damask is coming again to the fore like delicate tinted ghosts of the old red tablecloth. In blue, pink or yellow, they are quaint and attractive with china to match. The round cloths as well as the napkins are scalloped around the edges.

The assortment of luncheon sets is so irresistibly fascinating as to tempt even the tightest of shoppers. The elaborate flit and eylet sets are priced way up in three figures of course, but stunning ones of hand-embroidery with insets of cluny and cluny enging are quite within touch if one isn't too touchy.

Quality, durability, beauty and smartness are all four united, however, in a plain damasked linen set with hand-scoped napkins to match, each piece marked with a new square monogram.

Chinese linens for luncheon sets are steadily gaining as favorites just now and the heavy embroidery on the grass linen is most attractive. Inexpensive sets of the blue and white Japanese toweling are artistic with a service of the quaint blue and white Canton ware.

Huge bath towels of corrugated terry cloth scalloped in delft blue with a three inch square monogram in the same color are beautiful and will trim your bath-rack. Simply designed damask borders in blue and white face towels are to be desired with the edges either hand-scoped or hemstitched. An Empire wreath design is most adaptable as offering a fitting setting for the monogram or single initial.

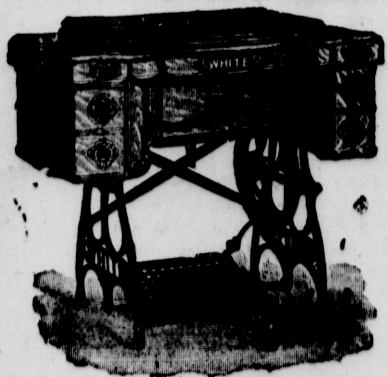

The adorable little guest towels of striped damask offer an unlimited field for the artistic and ingenious embroiderer. They are charming indeed when marked with three letters in cross stitch. Each letter of old blue is broken by a tiny nosegay of pink rosebuds and green leaves. A corner of the same design and coloring over the three letters adds to the quaint charm. Cross stitch initials on the larger face towels in one or three tones are also most alluring.

Sheets are traditionally best of linen, but from a practical side the present day lady of the house leans toward a fine imported muslin as less prone to muss and also as less clammy to a chilled tootsie.

Hand scalloped sheets with a three inch monogram are most effective but those that are hemstitched are quite as popular. The pillow case of course must be scalloped or hemstitched and monogrammed to match the sheet. The linen cases, however, are preferable even though the sheets be muslin.

A Land of Opportunity

Humboldt County, the least developed in California, presents splendid opportunities to investors and homeseekers. Men and money are needed for dairying, small fruit growing, truck farming, general farming and apple raising. A country of wonderful resources and ideal climate in which the first railroad is now building. All inquiries promptly answered by the Humboldt Promotion and Development Committee, Eureka, Calif.

CELEBRATED NATAL DAY

Educator Was Central Figure in Family Reunion Held in His Honor

Not even so forceful and progressive a man as E. H. McMath, principal of Santa Ana High School, can halt the march of that famous sprinter, Father Time, but must needs submit to the inevitable recurrence of birthdays. Like the rest of the philosophically inclined, Prof. McMath believes in making the best of everything, hence if he cannot avoid the annual birthday, he wants all the joy possible to be gotten out of it. In this worthy ambition he is usually aided by his nearest and dearest, and the yearly event arriving yesterday, his father and mother of Los Angeles and an aunt and uncle of Long Beach motored to Santa Ana to help make it a festive occasion.

The McMaths have just gone into their new home, a handsome two-story Swiss chalet which they built on South Birch street east of the new Polytechnic and High School buildings. As they have been in the new house only since some time last week, Mrs. McMath was not put to it to get ready for company and also get up a proper birthday feast for her husband. But being an efficient housewife, and probably being well aided by a sturdy better half, she had everything in apple pie order by yesterday except the one small item of hanging the curtains at the upper floor windows. So the guests were welcomed in a beautiful and well ordered house by the McMaths, who are very happy over being settled in their new home.

The birthday feast was in the nature of a chicken dinner with all the appetizing accessories to such a feast. But the principal feature was the birthday cake, a handsomely ornamented chocolate and nut layer delicacy made by Mrs. McMath especially for the occasion as it is her husband's favorite cake.

So with the presence of his best beloved, sitting at a generously loaded table spread in his own beautiful new home, Prof. McMath was very kindly disposed yesterday to his old friend, Father Time, and little inclined to complain of the rolling around of another birthday.

Goes to Eastern School

Miss Viola Hill started this noon for Hartford, Conn., where she will enter as a senior the Hartford School of Religious Education, a higher school of instruction in church, Sunday school and Y. W. C. A. work and similar lines. Miss Hill is looking forward with keen interest to her year.

We are glad to be able to announce the addition of a department of Oratory, Dramatic Art, and Physical training to the Conservatory this year.

This work will be in exclusive charge of Miss Margaret Berdina Henry, who comes with the highest recommendations from well known eastern colleges and private schools with which she has been associated. We feel ourselves very fortunate in having found a person of Miss Henry's ability to head this important department which it has long been our desire to establish.

We are getting out a special pamphlet giving full particulars of this work and shall be glad to mail you same on request.

ENJOYABLE EVENT

Or Rather, a Pair of Events; Pound Party and a Midnight Visit to Newly Weds

A most unique party was held at the beautiful bungalow home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Caray on South Flower street last Tuesday evening. The occasion was a "Pound Party" in honor of Mrs. Lila Taylor and young son, who are to reside in the neat little bungalow under construction next to her brother-in-law, P. E. Taylor, on West Pine. With the assistance of several neighbors the party was so cleverly arranged that it proved a complete surprise on the honoree, who was ushered into the darkened dining room, then the lights throughout the house were switched on, revealing a crowd of familiar, laughing friends, who called out cheerful greetings to Mrs. Taylor, who was so overcome with surprise that she fled to an adjoining room to recover herself.

The evening's entertainment was opened with a violin selection with piano accompaniment by Mr. and Mrs. Langseth, then Dr. Rowan ably made a presentation speech, in which Mrs. Taylor responded, expressing her appreciation in a few well chosen words. After the formal opening ceremony was over the guests enjoyed clever jokes and jolly conversation until supper time, when plates were distributed and everyone extended a glad hand to the sandwiches, pickles and coffee, and "Oh, such coffee!" Mrs. Buckingham, who was responsible for the brewing, always makes good coffee, but she certainly "done herself proud" that time. After supper the hostess announced dancing, which was indulged in until a late hour, when the guests, after voting Mr. and Mrs. Caray royal entertainers and wishing Mrs. Taylor, the honoree, many more happy events, departed for their homes.

At least they started home, but some one said "Newly Weds"—and with responsive exclamations in up-to-date dialect, such as "Sure!" "All right, get the tinware and we will go," the party made its way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Veale, who were aroused from slumber by their unexpected visitors. The following colloquy ensued with accompanying action:

(Considerable noise outside the Veale house.) "Coming out?" "No." (More noise.) "Coming out?" "Yes." (Perfect quiet.) "Here they come. Congratulations. We thought we would come early." (Mr. Veale appears.) "Glad to hear from you. I have treats everywhere. Help yourself at my expense." (Crowd enters.) "No, thank you. We came to see the bride." (Enter Mrs. Veale.) "All right, come in. We'll get breakfast for you all."

And had it not been so very early the merry-makers would have surely accepted Mrs. Veale's offer as she has a splendid reputation as a cook. But the chattering of the neighborhood aroused by the invasion, began singing a refrain, "Cut-out! Cut-out!" Thus admonished, the visitors fled after good byes and wishes for many years of wedded happiness for Mr. and Mrs. Veale.

Economics Meeting

The Fifth Household Economics Section met with Mrs. F. O. Shoemaker, 601 S. Sycamore street, yesterday afternoon. The subject was "Deserts." Mrs. Howard Wassum read a very interesting paper on the subject, and a general discussion followed.

Miss LaRue Fipps gave several vocal solos, which were very much enjoyed. Refreshments of peach sherbet and cake were then served by the afternoon's entertaining committee, consisting of Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Wassum, Miss Talcott and Miss Head.

At Home From Europe

Dr. Karl A. Loerch, eye specialist, has returned from a four-month trip abroad. While in Europe, Dr. Loerch took a special laboratory course at Freiberg University, and visited other laboratories and clinics in Heidelberg and Frankfurt on the Main. Aside from his professional interests, Dr. Loerch was an interested visitor to points in Switzerland. Paris was also on the doctor's European itinerary. Altogether he had a trip valuable not only from a professional standpoint, but from a traveler's point of view.

Dr. Loerch's Santa Ana office was in the professional charge of Dr. Philippi of Los Angeles during his absence.

Was to Sail Today

A message to Mrs. Robertson from her husband announced Dr. Robertson's arrival in Montreal last night with his daughter Louise. They made close connections with the liner Letitia of the Donalson Steamship line, going on board last night with the expectation of sailing for England this morning.

They expect to be in Glasgow, Scotland in time to attend church a week from tomorrow (Sunday) morning.

E. H. McMath, principal of the high school, went to Los Angeles this morning to meet Prof. McKown of the Santa Monica high school. The educators met to confer over the school cafeteria system in view of the proposed installation of a cafeteria in the Santa Ana high school. Prof. McKown is an authority on school cafeterias, having had experience in the successful conduct of one in the Santa Monica school as well as in another city where he supervised a cafeteria installation.

The J. G. Morris are now sojourners at 1815 North Main street, where they will be pleased to receive their friends.

Miss Olive Lopez went to San Bernardino this morning for a week's stay with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Schwalm.

Miss Daisy Roberts came up from San Diego last evening, after spending a week of her vacation in that city. She spent last night and this forenoon in Santa Ana, leaving for Los Angeles. Dr. Philippi of Los Angeles, who has been in charge of the office business of Dr. Karl A. Loerch during the absence of the latter in Europe for the past four months, returned to Los Angeles today.

Rain From a Cloudless Sky.

When rain falls from a cloudless sky it is generally believed that the moisture has been brought by the wind at a great elevation. In the south Atlantic it has been known to rain for more than an hour while the sky was entirely free from clouds. In the island of Mauritius it is not at all uncommon for rain to come from a cloudless heaven. Slight showers fall during the evening when the stars are shining brightly. It is thought by some that these showers are the result of particles of ice formed in the higher region of the atmosphere melting and falling. Others attribute it to currents of warm and cold air traveling in opposite directions, with the result that the latter condenses some of the moisture in the former and causes it to fall in the form of rain.

Where the Strain Was.

Among the ancestors of Wendell Phillips were several Puritan clergymen. Perhaps it was a push of heredity which made him, at five years of age, a preacher. His congregation was composed of circles of chairs, arranged in his father's parlor, while a taller chair, with a Bible on it, served him for a pulpit. He would harangue these wooden auditors by the hour.

"Wendell," said his father to him one day, "don't you get tired of this?" "No, papa," wittily replied the boy preacher; "I don't get tired, but it is rather hard on the chairs."

Superstitious.

"He was the most superstitious card player I ever saw."

"Yes, and he got so superstitious here lately that he doesn't play cards at all now."

"Is that so?"

"Yes. He suddenly discovered that there are thirteen cards in each suit."

Proof of It.

"Well," remarked the boxer, as he walked the floor with his first born, "some of my enemies have said that I couldn't put a baby to sleep, but I never believed it till now."—Week's Sport.

Pretty Good Evidence.

THE TALBERT SCHOOL OPENS

TALBERT, Sept. 13.—The local grammar school had its opening here last Monday, Sept. 8, with Miss Mead of Santa Ana, principal, and Miss Halley of Huntington Beach, assistant. The enrollment for the first few days was not as large as it was last year, but it is expected many more will come in later. The primary department had 26 and the secondary department had 18. Considerable improvement has been made on the grounds recently. The house has been painted, concrete walks have been put down, and a number of new swings have been put up, making all the improvements cost about $250. Fred Pope, Le Roy Wardlaw, and Willie Snow, who graduated here last year, will enter the Huntington Beach high school next week. Miss Harriet Planchon, another graduate of last year's class, will enter Polytechnic school at Santa Ana.

Miss Mable Pope started the course in the Orange County Business College last Monday.

A large number of people from here attended the races at Corona. Some of them were: Robt. Harper, S. E. Talbert, with Joe Miller and wife; Chas. F. Ward and wife, J. G. Parsons and Sam Clapp and wife.

Harvey Studebaker is having his vacation this week, and has gone on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Violet Clark, in Los Angeles.

Mrs. S. E. Talbert and her mother, Mrs. Thurman, motored to Long Beach Wednesday.

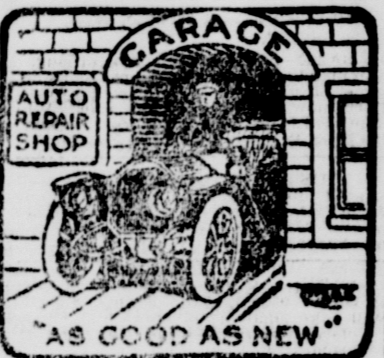

Mrs. Mary Bergman, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. H. W. Mathews, has gone to her home in Stockton. The latter accompanied her as far as Los Angeles last Sunday.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held a regular meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Geo. W. Bradley.

The celery crop is very good this year. However, it has been injured recently by the cut worms. Paris green and lime are being put on it for prevention of the worms.

Mr. F. A. Fallman and F. Jacobs of Stockton visited the former's brother-in-law, Mrs. H. W. Mathews, this week.

Mrs. Dora Rogers and daughter, Dorothy, of Imperial are visiting at

ANCIENT LANDMARK PULLED DOWN TODAY

Orange News: The old flagpole, one of the landmarks of Orange, was thrown into the discard today. Since it was converted from a ship's mast into a flagpole and brought to Orange from San Pedro by old Captain Hawthorne twenty-five years ago the towering white stem has stood sturdily in the center of the plaza, a familiar figure.

Of late years, however, the strain of age and the elements has left its mark and the old flagpole has been gradually yielding to the toll of time. It was recently condemned as unsafe by the city trustees and ordered removed and today the once proud crest was lowered.

The city trustees are considering plans for a new pole to replace the old one, but have not reached a definite decision.

IF HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS "CASCARETS"

Clean Your Liver and Waste-clogged Bowels Tonight!
Feel Bulky!

Get a 10-cent box now.
You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

Last evening the Methodist choir and Epworth League gave their faithful co-worker, Will Kroener, who leaves shortly for Ann Arbor, Michigan, a farewell party. About forty young people gathered and walked out to Mr. and Mrs. Gulick's home on Collins avenue. The first part of the evening was pleasantly spent in out-door games. Then musical selections by the choir quartet and Gladys Gutten were enjoyed. Refreshments of sherbet and wafers concluded the evening. Mr. Kroener was presented with a book of Riley's poems as a farewell gift and before leaving for their homes the company sang "God Be With You."

Adenoids Are a Menace to Children.

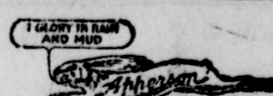

Babies and young children must be carefully watched for the growth of adenoids, which spoil the mental and physical life of a child. They usually result from a succession of colds and throat irritations, and their presence is so productive of harm, that many school boards have an examining physician to detect them. The conditions that cause them may be easily avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritations by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. Rowley Drug Co. and White Cross Drug Co.—Advertisement.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Jonathan apples made their first appearance in the markets yesterday. They will be quoted today at $3.35 per Colorado packed box.

The arrival of the Jonathan marks the near approach of the reign of apples in the fruit market. With peaches and plums going out, apples are just entering their height of season. Heavy shipments are being received daily. Bellefonte, 4-tier box, dropped from $1.50 to $1.25 yesterday. The quality of the apples shows a marked improvement.

Wholesalers say that peaches ought to be cleaned up for the season in two or three weeks. A shipment of Salways, the latest peach of the season to arrive in the markets, was received yesterday. They will be quoted today at 75 cents a lug. Plums, too, will soon be out, and the wholesalers say that inside of a week nectarines will be hard to get.

The first shipment of rosehips, the jelly plant, was received in the wholesale market yesterday. It is quoted at an average of $1.00 a box.

Quinces have dropped from $1.00 a box to 75 and 85 cents. They are not very plentiful, but there is not a big demand for them.

Cranberries are due to arrive in the markets in a few days. There are very few of these berries in the markets at all now, and they are not so good.

There was no bidding nor selling in butter or eggs on the Produce Exchange yesterday, and prices are the same.

An Unexpected Conclusion.

A mistress was summoned in a London court for having dismissed a servant girl without due notice. The defendant pleaded that the servant was so voracious that she could not keep her in food. The judge after hearing the evidence inquired of the defendant: "Will four and sixpence a week keep her?" "Not nearly," replied the lady. "Will 6 shillings?" continued the judge. "No; that would not keep her," replied the defendant, feeling that in the judge's hands her case was gaining strength. "Now take care," said the judge, "and answer cautiously. Will 7 shillings?" "It takes 8," said the defendant. "Very well," said the judge. "Then you must pay her 8 shillings a week as board wages for one month."—London Mail.

Good Intentions.

"I do my best," said Mr. Clumzie, "to scatter sunshine and encourage a spirit of patience and cheerfulness, but somehow I always go wrong." "What has happened?" "I met a friend who looked a little gloomy, so I said to him: 'Cheer up! Nothing is as bad as it might be. Every cloud has a silver lining, and you only make trouble worse by thinking about it.'" "Didn't he respond?" "No. He simply said: 'Don't bother me. I've got the toothache.'"—Washington Star.

Hereditry.

"Cute little cuss," said Slabside, gazing at Hawkins' baby, "but why the dickens do you suppose he's trying to get his toes into his mouth all the time?" "Takes after me," said Hawkins. "He's trying to make both ends meet."—Harper's.

Explaining It.

"There is such a queer smell after the automobiles here besides the gasoline." "I guess it must come from the road scorching."—Exchange.

They know not their own defects who search for defects in others.—Bancroft Proverb.
